NEW STUDENT CHECKLIST

Admissions, Housing and Financial Aid

Complete all steps in this section by the Priority Deadline Dates listed below

- Complete the Northwest Indian College Application for Admissions.
- Submit Verification of Tribal Affiliation (copy of front and back of enrollment card, CDIB, or letter from Tribe/Village verifying enrollment or status with tribe). This is very important in determining tuition rate.
- Submit Official Transcripts from all colleges attended (If applicable). If you would like your transfer credits evaluated toward your program of study at NWIC, also complete a Transfer Evaluation Request form.
- Submit High School transcripts or GED. Required for acceptance to the college. If you do not have either of these, please contact the Office of Admissions to see if you qualify for acceptance.
- Complete Federal Financial Aid Form (FAFSA for current year). Complete online at <http://www.fafsa.ed.gov>.
- Submit NWIC Financial Aid Data Sheet
- Submit Residence Life Program (Housing) Application (Lummi campus students only)

Assessment and Advising

- Make appointment for placement assessment and take test. Students must have results to register for classes.
- Make appointment with Advisor or Site Coordinator to discuss program needs and class schedule.
- Check with Financial Aid office regarding status of financial aid application before registering. Students must be accepted to NWIC to receive Financial Aid. Check with the Office of Admissions if you have not received a Letter of Acceptance.

Registration

- Meet with Advisor during the scheduled Registration Period (see quarterly schedule) to complete registration

Priority Deadlines for Admissions and Financial Aid

These dates are deadlines for Admissions and Financial Aid PRIORITY. Students who miss the Priority Deadline can still register for classes, but may have delays in receiving Financial Aid or their Letter of Acceptance.
