

JOB ANNOUNCEMENT

Chemical Dependency Instructor - PT

OPENING DATE: December 6, 2017
REVIEW DATE: December 20, 2017
CLOSING DATE: Open until Filled
LOCATION: Lummi Campus
SALARY: $$42.00 per credit hour

The salary is based on a quarterly faculty contract, with the possibility of supplemental summer salary through research grants, and/or summer teaching.

Northwest Indian College hiring practices include adherence to the Indian Preference Act (Title 25, U. S. Code, Section 473. NWIC supports and provides equal opportunity employment and educational opportunities without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, sex (including pregnancy), disability, age, veteran status, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, marital status or genetic information.

SCOPE OF WORK

The Chemical Dependency Part-Time Instructor is responsible for teaching one or more courses in Chemical Dependency Education per quarter during the 2017-2018 academic year. Instructors shall acknowledge the cultural perspective of students and use a variety of methods to convey necessary knowledge and skills, and develop student self-esteem. The faculty member is expected to prepare students for completion of a two-year NWIC degree, work in the early CD field as a practitioner, and/or transfer to a four-year institution.

DUTIES & RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Teach courses in Chemical Dependency as needed
2. Utilize the Video-Conference Hybrid modality to teach all courses.
3. Submit necessary reports such as enrollment, progress and final grading in a timely manner.
4. Engage in NWIC's course outcomes assessment process.
5. Submit textbook orders in advance of courses taught following established college timelines.
6. Create an environment, a presentation style and a pace in which learning is enhanced.
7. Maintain at least 1 hour of office availability each week for each quarter taught.
8. Present a Native American cultural focus.
9. Participate in content area activities /work, such as Faculty Inquiry Groups.

SUPERVISORY RESPONSIBILITIES

This job has no supervisory responsibilities.

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED

Minimum qualifications:

- Master's degree in Counseling, Psychology, Social Work, or Human Services/related field
- Experience teaching at the postsecondary level
- Excellent oral and written communication skills
- Excellent interpersonal/people skills
- Excellent organizational skills, handling multiple tasks and numerous student files
- Access to a computer with high-speed internet and webcam to teach Video-Conference Hybrid modality

Preferred qualifications:

- Two or more years' experience in teaching chemical dependency curriculum
- Must possess the credentials of the WA State Qualified Chemical Dependency Counselor
- Knowledge of strategies to increase Indigenous content across the chemical dependency program. Thorough knowledge of the subject matter
- Incorporate Indigenous knowledge and perspectives by inviting Elders and Indigenous community members to share Indigenous content in courses
- Identify appropriate historical and culturally significant resources for use in the curriculum
- Knowledge of culturally-relevant counseling supports for Tribal people with special attention on mental health needs
- Participate in content area activities /work, participate in the design and implementation of the four-year Indigenous Human Services Program work
- Experience with and sensitivity to Native American people and cultural customs
- Experience working with adult distance learning programs is highly desired
- Ability to work well on an independent basis with minimal supervision

Language Skills:

- Ability to read and interpret documents such as case studies and educational research. Ability to write routine reports and correspondence. Ability to speak effectively before groups of students or employees of organization.

Reading Skills:

- Ability in utilizing a variety of instructional delivery methodologies and a strong academic preparation in Chemical Dependency as evidenced by undergraduate and graduate level coursework.

Reasoning Ability:

- Ability to apply common sense understanding to carry out instructions furnished in written, oral, or diagram form. Ability to deal with problems involving several concrete variables in standardized situations.

Computer Skills:

- To perform this job successfully, an individual should have knowledge of Canvas Learning Management System (or similar, such as Moodle, Blackboard, etc.), Internet usage; Excel Spreadsheet, PowerPoint Presentation, and Word Processing software.

Other Qualifications

- Preference will be given to applicants with experience working in Native communities.

APPLICATION PROCESS

Interested individuals should submit the following application materials directly to the NWIC Human Resources Office only.

1. Cover letter addressing how you meet the position qualifications
2. NWIC Application
3. Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) form
4. Current and complete professional resume or curriculum vitae
5. Copies of colleges transcripts (official copy requested at time of hire)
6. Three letters of recommendation from persons, who not members of your immediate family, who have firsthand knowledge of your qualifications for the position
7. If applicable to the position, provide copies of certificates/licenses/credentials

The job announcement and application forms are available online at www.nwic.edu/jobs or may be requested from and submitted directly to:

Northwest Indian College
Human Resources
2522 Kwina Road
Bellingham, WA 98226-9278
Telephone/Fax: (360) 392-4230
Email: employment@nwic.edu