Reading the steps of what our grant means for our program's that provide service to our Indian Tribal people in our respective area's. It's been a rough road & have learned more from the missing documentation of what needs to be done and making a difference in my role as a TVR Specialist.

The amount of projects is a little overwhelming. Most of us work full time and then try to do our studies and try to keep up with the regular work but the projects are becoming an issue for me. I also wish there was an alternate time for the class, because I am on the east coast and its often hard to get to class at this time with my work day ending at 5 then the commute . I then have to come back to the office because I don't have internet access at home so its been challenging for me. I would also like to see more on transitions, and time management training. Thank you
