

A. NWIC outcomes: From the List of NWIC Outcomes, select the most important outcomes you assess in this course (at least one NWIC outcome must be chosen- maximum of four).

NWIC outcome # (e.g., "Written communication: 2a. Write Standard English")	Instructional Activities: How will students master this outcome? (e.g., solving problems, group activity)	Assessment/Evaluation Strategies: How will you measure this outcome? (e.g., student presentations, essays)

B. Course outcomes: In order of priority, list the most important other learning outcomes for this course that you assess (a maximum of 10).

Other course outcomes: Complete the sentence – As a result of this course, students will be able to...	Instructional Activities: How will students master this outcome? (e.g., solving problems, group activity)	Assessment / Evaluation Strategies: How will you measure this outcome? (e.g., student presentations, essays)
Demonstrate knowledge of tribal departments function and make decisions. Students will decide if this is similar or different to traditional Coast Salish decision making.	Students will participate in two internship programs that are of high importance	Students will write reflection papers on their internship experience, they will also develop a presentation that highlights their experience
Collaborate with community members on tribal issues and the development of solutions	Through guidance of community members, students will create and lead a service learning project that enhances tribal communities	Students will complete a service learning project
Effectively communicate in various settings in oral and written form	Students will develop a research project on a significant community issue	Students will present their findings in both oral and written form
Examine acquired rights and analyze how treaties, policies and laws have led to many issues facing tribal communities	Through research students will examine acquired rights and their impacts on tribal communities.	Students will complete reflection papers and a research presentation

C. Please list the NWIC outcomes and course outcomes from above on your syllabus.

D. Please assess the NWIC outcomes and course outcomes, which are listed above, in your classes.