

Course Outcomes: DRMA 210

Introduction into Cinema

The following are working course outcomes. These outcomes will be reviewed by the NWIC Curriculum Committee during the curricular review process in 2017 with the intent of creating and approving course outcomes.

At the completion of this course students will be able to:

- Identify the various major periods, personalities and films in the film history
- Identify the progressive technical and narrative achievements and characteristics in major periods, personalities and films
- Use appropriate technical vocabulary in identifying the various technical manipulations made possible by visual and audio equipment
- Analyze the specific use and effects of technical manipulations
- Analyze the contributions of acting, script, set, music and lights to the film narrative
- Apply discerning, informed criteria in evaluating films