

Course Outcomes for ENGL 237A-E

The following are working course outcomes. These outcomes will be reviewed by the NWIC Curriculum Committee during the curricular review process in 2017 with the intent of creating and approving course outcomes.

At the completion of this course students will be able to:

1. Demonstrate familiarity of contemporary Native American literature
2. Demonstrate knowledge of at least three NA legends
3. Write in-depth reflections on contemporary Native American literature
