

Course Outcomes for HIST 120

The following are working course outcomes. These outcomes will be reviewed by the NWIC Curriculum Committee during the curricular review process in 2017 with the intent of creating and approving course outcomes.

At the completion of this course students will be able to:

1. Demonstrate knowledge of the history, culture, and customs of the Nez Perce people before and after Euro-American contact
2. identify and discuss the main themes, a general time-line, and specific tribal characteristics of the Nez Perce people
3. demonstrate knowledge of the role that historians play in society and the historian's craft.
