

Course Outcomes: HUMS 135

Domestic Violence

The following are working course outcomes. These outcomes will be reviewed by the NWIC Curriculum Committee during the curricular review process in 2017 with the intent of creating and approving course outcomes.

At the completion of this course students will be able to:

- Describe core theories related to domestic violence
- Describe the role significant other of abuse in domestic violence
- Describe the steps for children affected by domestic violence to heal