

Course Outcomes: HUMS 240

Cross Cultural Perspectives

The following are working course outcomes. These outcomes will be reviewed by the NWIC Curriculum Committee during the curricular review process in 2017 with the intent of creating and approving course outcomes.

Upon the completion of this course students are expected to:

- Define and describe multi-cultural counseling and developing its competency
- Identify racism, bias issues in counseling, testing and assessment
- Characterize cultural transition and cultural identity development
- Demonstrate the comprehension of different approaches in counseling:
 - Native Americans
 - African Americans
 - Latinos & Latinas
 - Asian & Pacific Islanders
 - European Americans
 - Women
 - Men
 - Gay & Lesbian Persons
 - Seniors
 - Disabled Individuals