Enhanced communication with consumers, leaders and the community.

explaining the key concepts for an intake interview regarding information that should not be included in IPE. Learning to communicate professionally with consumers on informed choice, their rights and responsibilities. Along with confidentiality.

I have learned a lot from the class and been able to use strategies for myself suggested by other students.

The interaction and class open discussions with everyone. Learning what other TVR programs across the country does. Just the over all sharing information and tactics on how to handle and/or understand the difference scenarios of cases.

It opens my eyes to how important policy and procedures are in all parts of the Tribal VR program.

It has shown me how much still I need to learn about TVR and what I have learn has enable to perform my job with in the guidelines.

I enjoy learning from the other students in this class. Sharing experiences really helps build skills and give new ideas and examples to follow in the future.

I have had so many questions answered and my understanding of other items confirmed. The opportunity to interact with other counselors is invaluable. The staff are more than knowledgeable, friendly, and easily accessible.

Have materials available in a timely manner.

I would like to see the class documents in advance of the class time like 3 days before class so I can read over the material.
